

3-2-1894

Letter from Mary C. Shannon, Brooklyn, New York, to Sarah Whitney, Boston, Massachusetts, 1894 March 2

Mary C. Shannon

Wellesley College Archives

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Shannon, Mary C. and Wellesley College Archives, "Letter from Mary C. Shannon, Brooklyn, New York, to Sarah Whitney, Boston, Massachusetts, 1894 March 2" (1894). Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence. 351. https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence/351

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4) at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.

Brooklyn March 22d

My Dear Sarah,

I wish you were near enough, to look in this Spring morning, at the beautiful Lilies and Pinks that the children have placed around their Father's Picture. and to receive the grateful appreciation of your loving words to us. James always loved the flowers that surrounded Carrie's picture given up their house, which did not quite suit them, not leaving a sitting room or parlour - and they have had a good deal of trouble with the plumbing & living on the north side of the house. I am sorry to have the break. They may go to New York but they have not decided as yet.

Helen will remain another year as she would like also to go to Berlin N. H. but cannot change Harold's and used to say that - was the place for them not on the grounds. He did not like to go to Greenwich but preferred to have them at home.

We are all well and I had intended writing you to-day so am glad our letters did not cross.
I am glad to know you are well and I hope enjoying your new quarters. I should like to look in upon you and will perhaps before summer. Mamie has

School. Marnie has just returned from a visit to Baltimore where she has been visiting friends. Emma has been home two weeks from Northampton, she brought one of the Girls home with her for a change as she has not been well and has given up this term she left us this morning feeling much improved.
Emily will come at Easter so it is only a short time now, Emma was not

BROOKLYN
MAR
17

Miss S. W.

The Charles

Boston,

My Charlesgate Mass.

BAY. BOSTON

MAR 3

2 - M

BOSTON. MASS.
MAR 3
AM 5
1894

well, and the Dr ordered a change, so she has been three weeks at Antinches at Passer and today Duck has gone up to bring them home on Monday
he is greatly improved Give much love to the family in Belmont
when you see them Mr Chadwick's Society had a Sale and Tea Party last week to make some money to recoup and paint the interior of Church -

We had a very pleasant meeting at Mrs Mills; who gave her house for the occasion - I saw Mrs Manning there and many of the older members of the Society. They realized over 900 dollars - so all were pleased with their work, I hope this pleasant weather will continue so that you can get out - as the cold has probably kept you in - Love to all and a great Shave for yourself, from Your loving Sister Mary, all love to the dear friends